Increase your knowledge of community policing

What is the Citizens' Police Academy?

The Citizens' Police Academy (CPA) is an exclusive opportunity for individuals with professional or personal interest in community policing issues to acquire knowledge on police issues, practices and operations in the city of Edmonton.

Benefits of participation

- Increased awareness of current policing issues.
- Knowledge of the complexities and subtleties of police work.
- Greater understanding of community involvement in crime and safety issues.
- Tools to assist in making your community safer.
- Opportunity to connect with others in the community concerned about the same issues as yourself.
- Open and ongoing dialogue between the community and the Edmonton Police Service.

Discover community safety strategies

Community focused

Each community has its own policing needs. To assist these communities each class will target and focus on a specific community and invite business leaders, community residents and other stakeholders to participate and find practical solutions to community concerns. Priority will be given to these community partners.

Meet your classmates

We try to make the class as diverse as possible and encourage participants who have an interest in police related issues or work alongside the EPS to apply. Past participants have represented many parts of the community including;

- Community social agencies
- Business leaders
- Teachers
- Municipal politicians
- Media
- Cultural Societies
- Legal Community
- Police Commission

Better understand your police service

Course syllabus

Over the course of 13 weeks, your class will cover many aspects of the police service, with a strong emphasis on community policing. Through interactive, hands on learning, practical demonstrations, real life scenarios and case studies, you will cover topics including:

- Basic Criminal Law
- A Day in the Life of a Police Officer
- Community Policing
- Crime Scene Investigation
- Economic Crimes
- Child Protection
- Homicide
- Gangs
- Drugs
- Graffiti

"Absolutely amazing course. I truly believe every citizen should take this course to get an understanding of the EPS."
